ASSISTANT OR ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF ACCOUNTING

The Department of Economics and Business at Gordon College invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track assistant or associate professor, or a professor in the practice appointment with a specialization in accounting. Position to begin August 2021. Rank commensurate with experience.

The Department of Economics and Business, with six full-time and four part-time faculty, offers majors in accounting, finance, business administration, and economics. This position is responsible for leading our accounting program, including preparing students for the CPA exam. Principal teaching responsibilities will include a focus in accounting with the ability to also teach introductory finance. The position is responsible for teaching courses from among such topics as: principles of accounting, intermediate accounting, auditing, federal taxation, cost accounting, accounting information systems, advanced accounting, and possibly other related courses. The teaching load is 4-4. Faculty responsibilities also include advising students, service on college committees, and an active program of scholarship or engagement in the accounting profession.

The ideal accounting candidate will have:

- A Ph.D. in Accounting and a CPA. Consideration will be given to CPAs with a master’s degree in business administration or accounting and significant relevant professional experience.
- Potential for excellence in undergraduate teaching.
- Desire to engage in scholarly research or real-world accounting, including the integration of accounting and Christianity.
- A strong commitment to the Christian mission of the college.

Gordon College is recruiting accomplished faculty who demonstrate the ability to combine outstanding professionalism with a passion for teaching and mentoring, and who are dedicated to preparing thoughtful Christian men and women for lives of service and leadership worldwide. As one of the country’s top liberal arts colleges with a vibrant Christian community, Gordon is uniquely positioned to lead the conversation on the intersection of faith and cultural engagement. The ideal candidate will possess a desire to pursue the relationship between Christianity and accounting.

Interested applicants should submit a Curriculum Vita that includes the names and contact information of three references, a sample of academic or professional writing (10-20 pages), and a letter of application that addresses their fit with the Christian mission of Gordon College and with the position, including teaching and research interests.
