PROFESSOR OF SPECIAL EDUCATION, OPEN RANK

The Gordon College School of Education invites applications for a full time tenure-track assistant, associate, or full professor appointment with the opportunity to teach special education courses in both undergraduate and graduate teacher education programs. Position to begin August 2022. Rank will be commensurate with experience.

Gordon College is ideally located on Boston’s North Shore, a beautiful coastal area with easy access to Boston. The School of Education is committed to equipping students to use evidence-based practices through rigorous academic coursework paired with extensive opportunities for deliberate practice with targeted feedback both on campus in methods classrooms and through extensive field experiences. Local school districts recognize Gordon for its excellence in teacher preparation. Our undergraduate program prepares teachers for early childhood and elementary classrooms, with the option to pursue dual licensure with Special Education (Moderate Disabilities, PK-8) through completion of a minor. Undergraduates may also pursue a major or minor in Communication Sciences and Disorders. We also offer graduate programs leading to both initial and professional licensure in Moderate Disabilities, PK-8 and Moderate Disabilities, 5-12. Finally, our Ed.S. in Educational Leadership offers a special education administrator track.

Responsibilities:
- Provide oversight for special education programs;
- Teach special education courses in the undergraduate program and online graduate programs;
- Supervise related field-based experiences and student teaching placements;
- Advise students;
- Represent the School of Education on college committees;
- Engage in scholarly work.

Qualifications of the Ideal Candidate:
- Doctorate, or appropriate terminal degree completed by the time of appointment (ABD will be considered);
- A commitment to the Christian mission of the college;
- Full-time classroom teaching experience within PK-12 special education;
- Passion for special education and mentoring of undergraduate and graduate students;
- A commitment to evidence-based teaching in all content areas, including the science of reading;
- Experience in urban, cross-cultural, or otherwise diverse education settings;
- Evidence of a commitment to diversity and equity-related initiatives;
- Collaborative skills that cross departmental and disciplinary boundaries, including potential for collaborating with school and community partners;
- Research program or potential for its development.
Interested applicants should submit a Curriculum Vita that includes the names and contact information of three references, a sample of academic writing, and a letter of application that addresses their fit with the Christian mission of Gordon College and with the position for which they are applying.

TO APPLY: Please go to http://apply.interfolio.com/102051. Our review of applicants will begin on February 14, 2022, and continue until the position is filled.
