Gordon College invites applications for a non-tenure track position for a full-time chemistry appointment. The position will begin January 2020, for a term of 2.5 years. Rank will be commensurate with experience. Course coverage includes general chemistry and organic chemistry, along with advanced courses in the applicant’s area of expertise, such as environmental chemistry, medicinal chemistry, toxicology, or forensic chemistry.

The Chemistry Program is invigorated by our highly motivated students, newly equipped laboratories, ACS student chapter, and commitment to green chemistry education. Our faculty and students are actively engaged in research, outreach, and other avenues of professional development.

The ideal candidate will have:

- a doctorate in chemistry completed by the time of the appointment
- passion for teaching and mentoring undergraduates
- flexibility to teach a broad range of students – first-semester through finishing seniors, perhaps including non-science majors in our core curriculum course
- commitment to mentoring undergraduate research
- strong commitment to the Christian mission of the college

Gordon College is an energetic Christian community committed to the liberal arts. We strive to foster conversation at the intersection of faith and cultural engagement in a variety of disciplines, all with the mission to prepare Christian men and women to actively participate in every community in which they find themselves. To that end, we are recruiting accomplished faculty who demonstrate a passion for teaching and mentoring.

Interested applicants should submit a Curriculum Vita that includes the names and contact information of three references, a sample of academic writing, and a letter of application that addresses their fit with the Christian mission of Gordon College and with the position, including teaching and research interests.

TO APPLY: Please go to https://apply.interfolio.com/71384. Our review of applicants will begin as applications are received and continue until the position is filled. Teaching begins January 2020.

Gordon College is an equal opportunity employer. Qualified applicants for employment will receive consideration without discrimination on the basis of race, color, gender, age, national origin, or disability.
