

SCANDAL OF THE EVANGELICAL MIND—FIFTEEN YEARS LATER
CONFERENCE SCHEDULE—OCTOBER 1-2, 2009

Thursday, October 1
7:00 P.M.—Reception: Ken Olsen Science Center, DEC Loggia / Foyer
7:30 P.M.—Opening Lecture—Ken Olsen Science Center, MacDonald Auditorium
Mark Noll
Interviewed by: Maura Jane Farrelly, Assistant Professor of American Studies, Brandeis University
Friday, October 2
8-8:30 A.M.—Coffee Service
8:30-10:00 A.M.—Morning Session—Ken Olsen Science Center, MacDonald Auditorium
A Roundtable on Conservative Evangelical Expertise
Karl Giberson, BioLogos Foundation, Eastern Nazarene College, Gordon College
Randall J. Stephens, Eastern Nazarene College
Comments—Jon Roberts, Boston University; James C. Wallace, Boston University
10:25 A.M.—Convocation—A. J. Gordon Memorial Chapel
Mark Noll—“The Evangelical Imperative for Evangelical Intellectual Life”
11:30-12:45 P.M.—Break (Lunch—cash only—may be purchased in the Lane Student Center)
1-2:30 P.M.—Afternoon Session—Ken Olsen Science Center
David Hempton, Harvard Divinity School—“Minds and Mentalités in the Evangelical Tradition”
Margaret Bendroth, Congregational Library—“Women, Anti-Intellectualism, and Evangelical Identity”
Comments—Heather Curtis, Tufts University
2:30-3:00 P.M.—Refreshment Break
3:00-4:30 P.M.—Evangelicals, Politics, and Global Engagement
Timothy Samuel Shah, Council on Foreign Relations “A Survey of Intellectually Serious Evangelical Contributions to the Theory and Practice of Politics”
Dennis Hoover, the Institute for Global Engagement “American Evangelicals: From Activists to Internationalists?”
Comments—David Lumsdaine, Gordon College
Conference Adjourns

Sponsored by Eastern Nazarene College and the Gordon College Center for Christian Studies
Partially funded by a grant from the Lilly Endowment.

-
- All events will take place at Gordon College, 255 Grapevine Road Wenham, Massachusetts.
 - Please contact Keith Krass at 978-867-4115 if you have any questions.